Library Disability Resources

NCC Library
Nash Community College

The library at Nash Community College (NCC) provides resources to support academic success, professional development, life-long learning, and personal enrichment. To demonstrate compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the NCC Library has developed this Disability Resources fact sheet to address the needs of library patrons with physical and cognitive challenges. The resources below are available to NCC students and employees, Early College and CITI High students and employees, high school students in the Career and College Promise program, people living in Nash County communities, and campus visitors.

Handicapped vehicle spaces in parking lots.

Automatic doors at both entrances to the library.

Book stacks that are ADA compliant for wheelchair access.

Assistance for people who can not reach books on shelves.

Assistance with copying and scanning material.

SmartReader for magnifying book pages.

Microsoft Magnifier and Narrator on computers in the library lab.

Proxy library cards for patrons unable to come to the library.

Information and library research assistance available in the NCC Library and by phone, email, online form, and virtual technology. .

Referrals to the State Library of North Carolina; Accessible Books & Library Services.